EMIL MOLLENHAUER

1899

At the two performances of Handel's Messiah twenty-five years ago, Mr. Emil Mollenhauer assumed the leadership of the Handel and Haydn Society. Today he is recognized as one of the foremost conductors of America. He is now director of the Apollo Club of Boston, The People's Symphony Orchestra, and the Handel and Haydn Society. Whatever excellence the chorus of the Handel and Haydn Society may display to-day is due to the untiring and painstaking work of Mr. Mollenhauer.

ORATORIO, composed in 1741; begun August 22, finished September 14. Text selected from the Scriptures by CHARLES JENNENS. Produced in Dublin, April 13, 1742, under the direction of HANDEL. Additional accompaniments by MOZART, 1789; and by ROBERT FRANZ, for the use of the Handel and Haydn Society, completed and published in 1884. First performance by the Handel and Haydn Society, December 25, 1818, in Boylston Hall; present performances 149th and 150th.

PART ONE

THE PROPHECIES AND THE FULFILMENT.

I

OVERTURE

grave: fuga, allegro moderato

2-3

TENOR RECITATIVE

Comfort ye my people, saith your God: speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

AIR

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low; the crooked straight, and the rough places plain.

CHORUS

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed; and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

BASS RECITATIVE

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: Yet once a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all nations; and the desire of all nations shall come; the Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to His temple; even the messenger of the covenant whom ye delight in; behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.

3-9

ALTO RECITATIVE

Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son; and shall call his name EMMANUEL God with us.

AIR AND CHORUS

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain. O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid: say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God. Arise; shine; for thy light is come; and the glory of the Lord is risen upon see.

10-11

BASS RECITATIVE

For behold darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee and His glory shall be seen upon thee, and the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

AIR

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; and they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them the light shined.

12

CHORUS

For unto us a child is born: unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful; Counsellor; the Mighty God; the Everlasting Father; the Prince of Peace.

PASTORAL SYMPHONY

larghetto

(on the traditional air of the Calabrian pifferari)

14-15-16-17

SOPRANO RECITATIVE

There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them; and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people; for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior which is Christ the Lord.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying:

CHORUS

Glory to God in the highest; and peace on earth, good will towards men.

18

SOPRANO AIR

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. He is the righteous Savior; and He shall speak peace unto the heaven.

19-20

ALTO RECITATIVE

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped: then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.

ALTO AND SOPRANO AIR

He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; and He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom; and gently lead those that are with young. . . . Come unto Him, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and He will give you rest. Take this yoke upon you, and learn of Him; for He is meek and lowly of heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

21

CHORUS

His yoke is easy, and His burden is light.

INTERMISSION 10 MINUTES

PART TWO

THE PASSION AND THE TRIUMPH

23

ALTO AIR

He was despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.

24-26

CHORUS

Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions: He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him.

All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way: and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

29 - 30

TENOR RECITATIVE

Thy rebuke hath broken His heart: He is full of heaviness. He looked for some to have pity on Him; but there was no man; neither found He any to comfort Him.

Behold and see if there be any sorrow like unto His sorrow.

CHORUS

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in. Who is the King of Glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle. The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.

40

BASS AIR

Why do the nations so furiously rage together; and why do the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth rise up, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord and against His anointed.

42-43

TENOR RECITATIVE

He that dwelleth in Heaven shall laugh them to scorn; the Lord shall have them in derision.

ATR

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

44 CHORUS

Hallelujah! For the lord God Omnipotent reigneth. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. HALLELUJAH!

PART THREE

THE RESURRECTION AND THE GLORY

SOPRANO AIR

I know that my Redeemer liveth; and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first fruits of them that sleep.

50 - 51

BASS RECITATIVE

Behold, I tell you a mystery: we shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

AIR

The trumpet shall sound; and the dead shall be raised incorruptible; and we shall be changed.

CHORUS

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. Blessing and honor, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Amen! Amen!

The Verdi Requiem was first performed at Milan in 1784. Shortly after the death of Rossini, at the suggestion of Verdi, thirteen Italian composers wrote a requiem in his honor. Verdi composed for it the "Libera Me." This requiem proved a failure and later Verdi rewrote the entire work. On completion it was called the "Manzoni Requiem" in honor of Alessandro Manzoni, a poet and statesman of Italy. It is a work wonderfully rich and expressive and emotional appeal is found throughout the choruses and the solo numbers. Four solo voices, a double chorus, and a huge orchestra are very essential to bring out the beauty of the work. The performance by the Handel and Haydn Society, assisted by four great artists, should be one of the finest concerts ever heard in Boston.

FOR TWO PIANOS

THE JESTER

By CARL BEECHER

Grade IV-V

Price 70 cents net

It is a pleasure to announce this brilliant and effective number in a field so generally neglected by American composers. Recitals for two pianos are rapidly increasing in vogue and this animated, moderately difficult number is designed for such programmes, and for the use of students who appreciate the value and delight of ensemble playing. Two copies are necessary for performance.

"Carl Beecher's new work for two pianos, The Jester is a most welcome addition to the two-piano literature. It is admirably written and exceedingly effective."

Leslie Hodgson, Pianist, New York City

"... Your piano is admirable and it is with my warmest greetings that I wish you the great success which your instrument deserves."

As on the concert stage, so in his homes—in New York and in Paris—Chaliapin uses the Baldwin. Loveliness and purity of tone are found in all Baldwins—the Concert Grand, the smaller Grands, and in the Uprights. The history of the Baldwin is the history of an ideal.

Justice tempered with mercy

Mercy is what a man thinks he wants when he sits for a portrait photograph. But justice tempered with mercy is our standard. Justice is done when the portrait looks like the sitter. Mercy is given in the lighting, the favorable pose and in a score of favoring details.

It is you and nobody but you. And it is you at your best—because it is PURDY at his best.

The House Where Music Is

POR over a hundred years Chickering has stood supreme among fine pianos. The name has come to have even wider significance, however, for it means, also, an old Colonial building on Tremont Street, a Boston institution where one naturally goes to select a piano at whatever price one can afford to pay with a certainty of being satisfied.

You are cordially invited to our store if only to listen to the tone of our several instruments. It will be well worth a visit to hear the Ampico re-enact the very personality of the playing of the greatest artists.

If you wish to to buy at this time, your present piano will be taken in exchange and convenient terms of monthly payment may be arranged.

Until Christmas we shall be open evenings until 9 o'clock.
